Each coin is encapsulated and each product option is packaged in a black velvet, satin-lined presentation case, accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity.

The introductory sales period ends on March 2, 2015, at 3 p.m. EST, when regular pricing takes effect.

Pricing for the $5 gold coins and the Three-Coin Proof Set, which includes one proof $5 gold coin, one proof silver dollar, and one proof clad half dollar, will be determined by the United States Mint's pricing strategy for precious metals numismatic products, located at <http://catalog.usmint.gov>.

Sales prices include surcharges of $35 for each gold coin, $10 for each silver coin, and $3 for each clad coin. The first $5 million in surcharges received from coin sales is authorized to be paid to the U.S. Marshals Museum, Inc., for the preservation, maintenance, and display of artifacts and documents. The remainder of the surcharge funds will be divided among the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association Foundation, and the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund.

Orders will be accepted at <http://catalog.usmint.gov> and at 1-800-USA-MINT (872-6468), while hearing- and speech-impaired customers with TTY equipment may order at 1-888-321-MINT.
